Press Release

Georgetown Fire Company Open House

Posted: Monday, October 13, 2008

Please announce this non-profit community event:

The Georgetown Fire Company will be holding it's annual fire prevention open house this Saturday, October 18th from 10 am till 2pm. There will be fire truck rides, vehicle rescue demonstrations, public safety displays, refreshments, and more. Additionally, your children can learn how to safely escape your home in the event of a fire by taking a turn in the safety house. For more information, please contact the Georgetown Fire Company at 302.856.7700. We hope to see you this weekend!

As always, we greatly appreciate your help by spreading the word about our events.

For more information about this event, please contact: Stephen King (Media Relations) at 302.228.8002, or Sean Humphries (Event Coordinator) at 302.462.1164.

Sincerely,

Stephen King
